

TESTING ANALYST

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Planning:

- Engage with project and business role players to identify test requirements for new functionality across various initiatives
- Define and design test cases to meet the test requirements
- Identify and set up test data
- Provide a test schedule aligned to the release plan

Test Execution:

- Perform test execution within all test cycles (system testing through to business readiness testing)
- Provide progress reports with risk and issue identification and reporting to project managers / analysts
- Liaise with development team and project managers/ analysts
- Produce test result documentation to business analysts (test plans, test matrices, defect logs, etc.)
- Update support management software when testing is complete

Training:

- Provide user training on new software features
- Compile and update training material to be used in training sessions

Analysis:

- Identify areas of continuous improvement of user journey on software applications
- Provide input to project managers / analyst and developers on key findings and learnings from testing results

Support:

- Provide a first line of user support to the business on Client Platforms and escalate support matters to relevant parties when needed

REQUIREMENTS:

- Grade 12
- Diploma / Degree in software related area
- ISTQB/ISEB Testing Certification or any appropriate testing tertiary qualification
- 3 years relevant experience.
- Essential Computer Experience:
 - MS Office
 - Advanced Excel skills
- SQL query writing (beneficial)
- Essential language proficiency: Afrikaans and English

Salary is market related. Send all CVs to cvs@futurelearn.co.za